Q. 西村さんはいつからピースボランティアをしていますか。

Ms. Nishimura:

This is the Atomic Bomb Dome. The world's first atomic bomb was dropped near here at 8:15 a.m. on August 6, 1945. The dome has been like this for over 70 years. It reminds us of the horrors of the atomic bomb. It's also a reminder of our mission to work for peace.

Ms. Nishimura: (1) Does anyone have any questions?

Tina: (2) How long have you been a peace volunteer?

Ms. Nishimura: I've been a volunteer since 2000.

Tina: That's a long time!

Q. Tina は何について考えていますか。

Kota: Why did you become a volunteer?

Ms. Nishimura: When my daughter was a child, she often asked me questions about the peace monuments. But I couldn't answer. I realized that I didn't know much about the atomic bomb. So I wanted to learn about the bombing. I was determined to tell people, especially young people, about the tragic events. Young people must learn about these events to create a better world.

After they return to Honcho:

Tina: I've been thinking about our trip to Hiroshima.

Kota: Me, too. What can we do to promote peace in the world?

Q. Kota は広島での平和学習からどんなことを学びましたか。

Our trip to Hiroshima was a valuable experience for me. I learned a lot about the war and the tragic events of August 6, 1945. There I met a peace volunteer. She guides people around the sites of the atomic bombing. Though she wasn't a victim of the atomic bomb, she learned about the victims. The survivors of the atomic bomb are getting older year by year. She thinks we should pass their words on to the next generation.

It's important for us to learn about the past.
It's also important to think about creating a peaceful world. However, thinking about it is not enough.
We must do something to change the world.
