

When we are in second grade, we have work experiences in several places.

For example Obento no Hirai, The roadside station, a Nursery school, Tokai carbon and a mandarin orange farm.

We work there with the staff.

We can learn about hard work.

We can talk to many people.

So our communicatin skills are powered up.

These experiences are useful for our future.